

Carey helps clients protect one of their most valuable assets: their brands.

Drawing on more than 10 years' experience in intellectual property law, Carey counsels her clients on strategies to identify and develop protectable IP as well as the prosecution of high quality trademarks. Her brand protection services extend through enforcement and anti-counterfeiting measures.

Carey also manages and prosecutes trademark portfolios for a variety of clients in a wide array of industries. She advises clients on trademark filing strategy, handles global domain name disputes, and partners with clients to help them prioritize their goals in all aspects of building and protecting brands in a global economy.

Her patent work concentrates on managing disclosure requirements throughout our clients' complex patent families and ensures compliance with USPTO regulations.

Carey holds a Professional Certificate in Anti-Counterfeiting and Brand Protection from the A-CAPP.
