Dawn C. Kerner

PHILADELPHIA, PA, (January 11, 2019) – Volpe and Koenig, P.C., an intellectual property law firm with offices in Philadelphia, Pa., and Ewing, NJ, is pleased to announced that Dawn C. Kerner was recently elected a shareholder of the firm.

Kerner, who joined the firm in 2008, has more than 12 years of experience practicing intellectual property law. Kerner earned her law degree at Villanova University School of Law and her undergraduate degree in engineering science from The College of New Jersey.

Throughout her practice, Kerner focuses on ensuring clients receive effective and thorough counsel on a range of intellectual property matters, including patent prosecution, IP portfolio development and strategic counseling. She consistently approaches clients' matters with an eye to their unique needs and, as a result, is often praised for her practical guidance that benefits both long-term client goals and short-term needs alike.

Firm President Jay Halt stated "Dawn has been a long-time member of the Volpe and Koenig team and knows the firm's culture, clients and mission through and through. In the last few years, she has become an invaluable resource to clients looking to grow their portfolio and develop smart strategies, as well as a mentor and leader within the firm for her peers. She brings a wealth of legal knowledge to our shareholder ranks, as well as smart business sensibilities and a passion for people that is an asset to our clients and employees alike. We're thrilled to have her operating at the highest levels of the firm."

Dawn Kerner says "I'm grateful for the opportunities Volpe and Koenig has afforded me throughout my career. Working here has challenged me to think smarter and differently, as an attorney and a person, and I'm a stronger leader as a result. I enjoy working with our clients and getting involved in the community. Over the course of the last year in particular, the firm's diversity and inclusion committee has afforded
